

Employment Opportunities/ Job Openings

Attorney Fellowship Immigration Legal Services (ILS)

Catholic Charities Atlanta is seeking an attorney to work full time in our Immigration Legal Services program. Candidates must be an active member of the bar of the highest court of any state or territory in the United States, Georgia preferred. Will consider candidates for the July 2018 bar exam. Fluency in Spanish is required, as well as prior experience or coursework in immigration law. Must have the ability to work in a fast-paced and collaborative environment.

We seek an attorney to work with our Detention Orientation Program for a period of two years. The attorney fellow will spend three days every other week in Ocilla, Georgia providing legal orientation to immigrants detained at Irwin County Detention Center. In those weeks, the attorney fellow will spend the night in Ocilla Monday through Thursday and then returns to Atlanta on Thursday evening. On the alternating week, the attorney fellow will spend two days a week at Stewart Detention Center in Lumpkin, Georgia. There will be no overnights for the Stewart days.

While in the office, the attorney fellow will undergo an intensive training in immigration law, leading towards direct representation of a limited number of detainees. Upon completion of the two year fellowship program, the fellow will be an experienced immigration attorney with market able skills to seek continued employment at Catholic Charities Atlanta or elsewhere in immigration law.

Email a resume, cover letter and a writing sample with “Attorney ILS” in the subject line to:

ccaemployment@catholiccharitiesatlanta.org

No calls please. Qualifying candidates will be selected and contacted for interviews.

Posted: August 21, 2018