Peaceful Wooded Setting

St. Joseph Place is a retirement community offering affordable, totally independent living in a peaceful, wooded setting minutes from downtown Atlanta. Located on a six acre tract adjoining the Village of St. Joseph and Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, St. Joseph Place is an inviting cluster of one-story apartments, each with a private entrance and over 500 square feet of space.

Forty-seven one-bedroom apartment homes are grouped within 11 brick buildings to form an attractive, welcoming neighborhood. A separate building houses a furnished community room, information center, coin-operated laundry facilities, and a management office.
